

Inmedix hosts 2nd annual charity golf tournament to support kids with arthritis.

Inmedix pays all costs; 100% of player fees go to Seattle Children's Hospital pediatric rheumatology.

NORMANDY PARK, WA, USA, August 22, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As part of its commitment to combating autoimmune diseases, Inmedix today announced that it will host its second annual

Our annual Inmedix event is conducted to remind our community that children also get arthritis and that we need to keep working hard to combat and prevent it."

Andrew J Holman MD

Inmedix Golf Tournament on Monday, August 27, 2018 at the Rainier Golf & Country Club in Seattle, Washington. Inmedix raised $11,000 for Seattle Children's Hospital pediatric rheumatology at its inaugural event in 2017.

Inmedix wishes to thank the Seattle Mariners, Pro Golf Discount and iHeartMedia KJR (950 AM, "Sports Radio 950") for their generous support in 2017, and again, in 2018.

With 100% of all player fees benefiting Seattle Children's Hospital pediatric rheumatology, the tournament tees off with a 1 p.m. shotgun start. The tournament will feature closest to the pin, longest drive and other contests and prizes, followed by a Caribbean-style dinner and steel-drum band.

"New immuno-autonomic breakthroughs have been reported for adults with autoimmune diseases," said Andrew J. Holman, MD, founder and CEO of Inmedix and Clinical Associate Professor of Medicine (rheumatology) at the University of Washington. "However, we wish we could do more for children afflicted by these serious, destructive diseases. Our annual Inmedix event is conducted to remind our community that children also get arthritis and that we need to keep working hard to combat and prevent it."

Registration is $125 per player, and open to both individuals and foursomes. Golfers can register by mailing name, handicap and checks payable to "Seattle Children's Hospital" to:
